

now>press>play reckon “and” is a very boring word. Can you use some interesting connectives to join up the story? Here are some connectives to use:

until, although, before, while, when, finally, therefore, so

1. We were looking round the shuttle with Valentina _____ the doors shut!
2. We flew the shuttle all the way to Mars _____ we were only children.
3. To fix the shuttle, some of us held the rope _____ some of us fixed the hole.
4. We stayed on Mars _____ a dust storm came.
5. We spotted a meteorite _____ we picked up our radio
6. We released our rocket blasters, _____ pushing the meteorite off course.

There are other ways to complete it. If you used your own words, that's fine!