

You've just pushed the meteorite off its course. Finish the story, as an entry in your shuttle's 'logbook' (the captain of the shuttle writes in the logbook every day – like a diary).

Ideas: Are there any more incidents in space (do you run out of something? Or get lost? Or argue with your classmates?). You can even continue for when you get back home. Who do you see? Is there a celebration for you in London?

Captain's Logbook.

Day 305: Today we pushed the meteorite off its course and started heading back for London...

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---