

We gave Celena a big smile and climbed inside the plane.

“Fasten your seatbelts, please!” said the pilot.

We zoomed up high into the air. Down below we could see our town.

1 How can you tell we were happy?

2 What does the word “fasten” mean? Tick one.

Go fast Undo

Do up Find

3 Which word shows that we flew very fast?

“Look, it’s our street!” shouted Celena.

We pointed at our house, which was the size of a pea.

“Hold on”, shouted the pilot, “We’re going upside down!”

Celena and I both screamed! Finally, we landed safe and sound back on the ground.

4 Why did our house look like the size of a pea?

5 Why did we start to scream?

6 What two words in the last sentence rhyme?

and

7

Number the sentences below from 1 to 4 to show the order they happen in the story.

The first one has been done for you.

We flew up very high.

We got on board the plane.

We landed safely.

The plane went upside down.