

Articles

Articles are the words that go before nouns. We use 'a' or 'an' if it's one of many things but we use 'the' if it's a specific thing (or something that's already been mentioned). Fill the gaps with 'a', 'an' or 'the'.

It was ____ hot day in spring and we were in ____ garden. We accidentally trod on ____ Stemmy and our Mum told us off. Suddenly, one of ____ Stemmys started talking to us. At that moment, ____ scientist turned up at our front door. She had ____ annoying voice. We hid Stemmy away from her! ____ bee called Winston came and told us we had to take Stemmy's pollen to Jamaica, to pollinate ____ last Stemmy in the world. We took _____ pollen from Stemmy to Poppa Tree in Jamaica. Poppa Tree gave us ____ Stemmy seed which we took back to Britain.
