

Online Safety Writing Tasks (KS1)

Poster

You learnt a lot of different lessons about how to keep safe online during your adventure inside the Internet but you wouldn't want the same thing to happen to anyone else. Design a poster to remind other children of the key things to do to keep safe online.

You might include reminders:

- not to click on pop ups
- not to open emails from people you don't know
- never to share your personal information with people you don't know

Remember:

- bright, bold wording and images

Letter - Dear Dad

Dad was really worried when you disappeared. You felt very sorry for forgetting the online safety rules and want to let him know you won't let it happen again. Write him a letter telling him how sorry you are and telling him what rules you were reminded of during your internet adventure.

You might include:

- what happened when you clicked on the pop up
- your meeting with Betty the Butterfly who asked you to share your personal information
- Mabel the Monkey sending you an email

Remember:

- start your letter with: Dear Dad,
- begin by explaining why you are writing e.g. I'm sending you this letter because.....

Recount - Not Quite What It Seemed

'You didn't realise you'd have to give her something. You thought she was just being nice.'

When you met Pollyanna the Parrot she promised you a big bag of coins and was so friendly and understanding. She really seemed to understand just how sad you were feeling. But why did she ask you to tell her the name of your school? Write a recount of what happened and what you learnt about keeping safe online from this meeting.

You might include:

- how you felt when you knew you had been tricked

Remember:

- Use the first person, 'I': eg I was feeling really sad when....

Song or Rap

There are lots of safety rules to remember when you go online!

Can you create a class poem or rap to help everyone in your class stay safe? Once you've all learnt it you could perform it to the rest of the school.

You might include:

- a chorus:

stay safe stay safe
the internet it can be great people come and people go

some you might not even know

stay safe stay safe

the internet it can be great

Remember:

- include key safety rules

Instructions - Jungle Gym

You enjoy playing your favourite game, 'Jungle Gym' but want to be sure you stay safe next time you play. Dad wants to play with you too and you need to teach him the rules. Write a list of instructions to help Dad play and keep safe online.

You might include:

- a list of animals he can become
- what he has to do e.g. collect gold coins
- a reminder of ways he can stay safe online

Remember:

- use bossy language e.g. You have to collect gold coins
