

Landfill Poem

Write a poem in the shape of the landfill site (a mountain of rubbish)! You have to keep all your words within the lines: this means your first line will only be one, small word and your last line will be the longest. The poem is about what it's like in the landfill. Think of all the waste: rotten food, old household items, clothes, metal, plastic...

