

“Show me the vegetables!” demanded Aunt Mildred.

We nervously showed her the carrot.

“Where are the rest?”

You shrugged your shoulders. That’s all there was.

1 Which word shows we were afraid of Aunt Mildred?

2 What does the word “demanded” mean? Tick one.

asked politely suggested

ordered explained

3 Why did you shrug your shoulders?

You stomped angrily to the bedroom.

You rubbed your tummy. You were really hungry now.

You picked up a handful of small, shiny seeds and a big, papery bulb - like an onion.

4 How were you feeling? Tick two boxes.

sad hungry confused angry

5 Which two actions show this is how you were feeling?

_____and _____

6 Find four adjectives that describe the seeds and bulb.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____

7

Match the sentences to show what happened to the seeds.
One has been done for you.

The flowers and vegetables grew in the field.

The seedlings had brown leaves in the desert.

The seedlings had long, thin stems in the cave.

The seedlings had weak, short roots in the cave.

The ground was made of cold stone.

There wasn't enough water.

There wasn't enough light.

They had water, sunlight and warmth.

