

Write a newspaper report describing how one child (that's you!) persuaded the Prime Minister to give proper rights to workers. Mention Mr Botley's factory, the whipping of John, the march to the Houses of Parliament and finally, the child and Lady Do-Good talking to William Gladstone. At the top, write a headline for your story and use some of your Victorian phrases!

The Daily Chronicle

5th June, 1869